

Elvis lives up to his name as he a “Hunk of Burning Love” and is truly a Gently Giant. Before coming to Mane Support, he was recused from an airplane hangar, where he and 4 others were left to starve. His tolerance and willpower are true examples to us all as he allows those who need direction to find it with his guidance and those who need to set boundaries to feel his strong and caring presence of leadership.