

Sophie is a Haflinger who is a joy to be around. Her size represents the huge heart she has for taking care of people, both young and seasoned. Before coming to Mane Support, she pulled a large wagon with another team mate. Now, she carries clients on their journey, when there aren't any words to say about their grief and loss.