

Scout is a micro-mini and stands about as tall as your knees. Mane Support has been blessed to be able to call him our Ambassador, as he travels from event to event and location to location. His size has nothing to do with his personality or his ability to be one of the best therapy horses. With an SUV as his horse trailer, he makes his own way to the heart of those who are grieving.